Portfolio description

This portfolio looks to achieve capital growth in excess of inflation, whilst supporting inclusive economic development by investing in more environmentally and socially sustainable business practices. The portfolio will look to do this by investing in a diversified range of funds, which allocate capital to sustainable themes, such as healthcare and social housing, financial inclusion and education, the circular economy and renewable energy. The portfolio is diversified across a range of asset classes with a medium allocation to funds investing in equities (expected to be no greater than 85%) and other risk assets. Target volatility: 8% - 13%

United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

Portfolio pillar mapping

As part of the LGT Wealth Management Sustainable Model Portfolio Service, we have developed four sustainable investment pillars. These pillars encompass investment themes and the related the United Nation's Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDG), which they aim to support. Two of the pillars target social themes and two target environmental themes. This allows the translation of a framework based on a global, wide-reaching social and environmental change into an investable universe of ideas.

Our sustainable investment pillars

In order to better understand the thematic exposure of the portfolios, we have aligned the underlying funds to our sustainable pillars.

Monthly investment update

Markets bounced back strongly in May, reversing April’s losses as US tariff tensions eased and corporate earnings impressed. The S&P 500 rose 6.3%, its best monthly gain in over a year, fuelled by strong job data, solid earnings (particularly from AI-related tech stocks) and signs of trade progress between the US, UK and China. Europe’s Euro Stoxx 600 rallied 5.1% and Japan’s Nikkei 225 climbed 5.3% as trade tensions eased, whilst Chinese equities edged higher.

US Treasuries faced pressure as Moody’s downgraded the US credit rating, pushing 30-year yields to 4.93%, their highest level since 2023 as Trump’s proposed tax cuts prompted further concerns towards rising debt. Central banks struck a cautious tone. The Fed kept rates steady, citing uncertainty over trade and growth. The Bank of England cut rates to 4.25%, though policymakers remain split on future moves. Despite lingering trade tensions and fiscal worries, May delivered welcome relief and positive momentum for investors.
